1672 Two books donated by Author Jack Dempsey

Donor:

Jack Dempsey

Value: $68.00 Minimum Bid: $15

Plymouth Author Jack Dempsey has donated two books, one by himself and one by his son. Jack wrote "Capitol Park - Historic Heart of Detroit." The book looks at the history of Capitol Park. The park is the burial place for Michigan's first governor and was an underground railroad site. Learn the story of this historic site. The second book is by his son Michael Cameron Dempsey and is called "A City Planner in Abu Dhabi (Ah-boo Da-bee)." The book traces Abu Dhabi's boom years from the perspective of a western urban planner. Jack Dempsey is a member of the Plymouth Historical Museum.
